THE ADAMS SENTINEL

GETTYSBURG:

Monday, November 27, 1854.

Thanksgiving Day was generally observed by our citizens—there being a general cessation of business. There were religious services in the Presbyterian Church, and Christ's Church—which were well attended. In the evening, in the Methodist Episcopal Church, an address was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Doss, on the death of our late citizens, Wm. B. LAUGHLIN and GABRIEL MEALS, by request of the "Sons of Temperance" and the "Odd Fellows," of which orders the deceased were members.

Bank of Gettysburg. On Monday last, the following gentlemen were elected Directors of the above Institution:—
George Swope, Wm. Gardner,
John A. Matter, David Wills,
John A. Swope, Alex. S. Himes,
David Knechtel, Henry Wirt,
George Young, Joseph A. Shorb,
Wm. R. Stewart, Wm. Douglass,
J. K. Longwell.

On the 18th inst., the following gentlemen were elected officers of the Gettysburg and Petersburg Turnpike Company:—

President—Wm. McSherry.
Managers—Wm. D. Himes, J. H. McCreary, Richard Dorsey, Jacob Wirt, J. B. McPherson, John A. Swope.

The Laughlin Family. It is our painful duty to mention that the interesting little niece of Mr. Laughlin, the last survivor of the unfortunate family, has also been taken to her rest. It is indeed a mournful incident, and one which rarely has a parallel. An aged mother—a son, his wife, two children, and niece—all cut off at once! We do indeed sympathize with those that remain, particularly that warm-hearted sister, who has had this additional sorrow added to the suffering of another tender tie!

Our friend M'CLURE, of the "Repository and Whig," has laid us under additional friendly obligations by his notice of us. Whenever he does anything of this kind, he does it generally, as any other style would be unnatural. The good old "Repository" will enter its sixty-second year on the 1st of January next; and is in the "full tide of success." It could not fail to be so whilst under the energetic supervision of our friend M'CLURE. We are pleased to witness its onward course, not only because it will richly remunerate the Col. for his labors, but because we feel a kind of family pride in the good old Journal.

Still it Goes!—On Wednesday the steamer Niagara sailed from Boston for Liverpool with $564,000 in American gold and $57,000 in English coin.

Robert W. Johnson has been unanimously elected U. S. Senator by the Arkansas Legislature.

New York Election. It is now rendered certain that the whig candidate for Governor, Mr. CLARKE, has been elected, by a small majority—the particular amount not yet ascertained.

Of the thirty-two members of the Senate, twenty-two have been elected as whigs.

Of the 125 members of Assembly, about 80 are whigs.

Another Warning.—On Friday night week, Mrs. Boney, living at Manassas, Philadelphia county, was dreadfully burned by the upsetting of a fluid lamp.—She figured in great agony until next morning, when death relieved her. A few hours before her death, she gave birth to a child, which also died.

Shocking Campfire Accident.—On Saturday evening week, in Allegheny city, Pa., Mr. Hersh requested his son, a small lad, to hold a lighted candle until he could fill a lamp with camphine oil. While complying with the request, the boy by oversight let the light come in contact with the fluid, which exploded immediately, burning the child who held the candle in such a manner that he expired a few hours after the occurrence. Two other children were severely burnt, as also were the parents while attempting to save their little ones.

The closing of the New York Canal is officially announced to take place on the 5th of December. The season is described by the Rochester Union as having been a dull one for all connected with the navigation of the Canals.

Death of Judge Durkee.

This mournful event, which has for some time past been expected, took place on Thursday last, at his residence in York. He was in his 64th year. He was President Judge of this District about 14 years—having had a full term of 10 years, and subsequently 3 or 4 years after Judge Irvin's resignation. His funeral took place on Saturday afternoon last. Few men possessed more of the "milk of human kindness" than the deceased. Frank, open hearted, generous, with a heart full of the finer feelings of our nature, he had endeared to him a large circle of friends, who will much miss his pleasant social converse. As a jurist, he ranked high.

Immediately on the receipt of the intelligence here on Friday evening, it was announced to the Court, (which was in session, engaged in the trial of a cause,) by D. M. CONAGHY, Esq.; and after a few remarks by him, R. G. McCREARY, Esq., and Judge FISHER, the Court at once adjourned until Saturday.

In the evening, a meeting was held, the proceedings of which have been communicated to us as follows:—

A meeting of the members of the Bar and Officers of the Courts of Adams County, was held in the Court-room on Friday evening, Nov. 24, at 7 o'clock, with a view to an expression of feeling in relation to the death of Hon. DANIEL DURKEE: when, on motion, Hon. ROBERT J. FISHER was called to preside, assisted by Hon. SAMUEL R. RUSSELL, and Hon. JOHN M'GILVER, as Vice Presidents; and R. G. McCREARY, Esq., was appointed Secretary.

The business of the meeting was introduced by Judge FISHER, in some feeling remarks, in the course of which he paid an eloquent tribute to the virtues and memory of the deceased: after which, on motion of R. G. McCREARY, Esq., a committee, consisting of Hon. MOSES McCLURE, ROBERT G. McCREARY, and JAMES G. REED, Esqrs., was appointed by the President, for the purpose of preparing resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the meeting.

In the absence of the Committee, DAVID M'CONAGHY, Esq., addressed the meeting in an eloquent and appropriate manner, in which he was followed by WILLIAM B. McCLERAN and W. L. CAMPBELL, Esqrs., after which the Committee reported the following preamble and resolutions:—

Whereas it hath pleased Almighty God to remove from this scene of conflict and suffering, as we trust, to a better and happier world, the Hon. DANIEL DURKEE, so long the learned, dignified, and respected President Judge of this district, and more recently, the able, eloquent and highly esteemed senior member of our Bar;

And whereas we deem it due to ourselves, as well as to the memory of the deceased, to give formal expression to the sentiments which intelligence of this event hath produced in us:—

Resolved, That it is with deep grief and sadness of heart that the officers and members of this Court and Bar have received information of the death of one whose counsels and society we have so long been accustomed to enjoy and confide in, and whose rare and varied gifts and qualities of head and heart have made him an ornament of his profession, and the delight of the social circle.

Resolved, That the death of this great kindness of heart, his amenity and uniformity of manners in social life, his uniform courtesy to the Court and members of the Bar, his high-toned principles and deportment as a lawyer, his pure and honorable discharge of his functions as a Judge, had most warmly attached to him, the officers and members of this Court and Bar and our entire community, and had won for him an enviable position among the first Jurists of this Commonwealth and of the Country.

Resolved, That as a mark of esteem for the virtues of the deceased, and our deep grief for his loss in him, the Officers and Members of this Court and Bar will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be entered at length upon the records of the several Courts of this County, and that they be published in the different newspapers in the district.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the meeting transmit a copy of these resolutions and proceedings to the family of the deceased, with the assurance of our sincere condolence, and heart-felt sympathy with them in this their irreparable bereavement.

Upon the passage of these resolutions Hon. MOSES McCLURE addressed the meeting in a feeling and appropriate manner, after which the preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

R. G. McCREARY, Secy.

ATTEST—R. G. McCREARY, Secy.

A man named John Mayhew, employed at Mount Holly Iron Works, Cumberland county, was killed on the evening of the 15th inst. by a wagon loaded with coal passing over him. He was returning from a coaling, riding on the off-wheel mule, his son driving. He was intoxicated, and in endeavoring to get off the mule, fell under the wagon, which passed over him.—He lived but an hour.

To the Illinois State Legislature the anti-Nebraska men have an overwhelming majority. The Senate consists of twenty-five and the House of seventy-five members. Including the Senators who hold over, the Anti have in the Senate fourteen out of nineteen districts in which the result is ascertained; and in the House the Whigs and Fusionists have forty-seven members, whilst the Nebraska Democrats have only five. The result in the case of six Senators and twenty-three Representatives is yet unknown.

Pennsylvania Public Works.—Another effort is to be made to dispose of the main line of the Public Works of Pennsylvania. The Governor announces that "several proposals for the purchase of a mid main line, or any division thereof, will be received at the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth until Monday, the first day of January next." The proposals must state distinctly whether the bid is for the whole line or part, and for what part.

Thomas P. Cope, a well-known and highly esteemed merchant of Philadelphia, died on Wednesday last, at the advanced age of 87.

About 1500 emigrants arrived at New York on Thursday last in four ships.—They had 28 deaths on board during the trip.

Late from Europe.

The steamer Canadian arrived on Tuesday night, with Liverpool dates to the 7th. The bombardment of Sebastopol still continued. Some of the towers and other works had been destroyed, according to the English account, and the place, it was thought, could not hold out long. The town is represented to be a mass of ruins.—The English loss on shipboard from the Russian fire, was 44 killed and 266 wounded, and the ships considerably damaged by shot and shells. The French loss 30 killed and 186 wounded. The British and French forces have been much cut up by disease and losses, and reinforcements were urgently called for from England and France.

Russia has 200,000 men facing the Austrian frontier, while Austria has embattled along her frontier from Cracow to the Danube 200,000 men, and 25,000 more in the Principalities. Both sides show great activity.

As an indication of the suffering and want likely to prevail among the poor of Philadelphia during the coming winter, one of the police officers states that within a few days he has visited professionally a number of the pawnbroker establishments in the lower part of the city, and was surprised at the number of household articles, and furniture there to be seen. One of the pawnbrokers told him that he had already paid $700 for pledged winter clothing, and that he had now more than enough on hand.

A large portion of this clothing had been pledged by working men who had not been long out of employment, but who have fallen behind, and who are driven to all straits to get bread for themselves and their families. If this be the case now, what suffering and destitution may we not expect during the next three months.

Slaves Liberated.—Fifty-three manumitted slaves arrived at Dover on Saturday, the 11th inst., on their way to a tract of land, purchased as a home for them, in Mercer county. They had belonged to J. J. Everett, of Annapolis county, Virginia, who recently died, leaving them, by will, their freedom, and $100 each to buy land. He left money, also, to be used in buying up and setting free their immediate relatives who were in possession of other masters. His ex-curses were accompanying them to the lands purchased for them, which lie a few miles north of Mercer. Considerable excitement was created by their arrival.

Judson's Hotel, on Broadway, New York, was destroyed by fire on Monday last. It was five stories in height, fronting on Broadway, and extending back to Trinity Place. The loss is nearly $100,000, on which there is an insurance of about $65,000. There were 180 boarders at the time, and some of them from the upper rooms had to be relieved by firemen's ladders, their retreat by the stairways being cut off by fire. The loss of the boarders in the house is probably $20,000, as they were obliged to leave without taking anything with them.

Wm. H. Martin, the principal distributing clerk in the Baltimore Post-office, was arrested on Wednesday last, on the charge of purloining checks and money from letters passing through the office.—The evidence is strong against him. He lived in very elegant style, and has large sums on deposit, and all out of a $1000 salary—so that the purloining has been going on for a considerable time. Mr. Martin has been in the office for 20 years, and great confidence was placed in him.

A serious railroad collision took place near New York on Wednesday. Two were killed, seven badly injured, and several others slightly. The cars were badly shattered.

Post-Office Robberies.—J. H. and J. D. Wicker, two young men of Chicago, Ill., of respectable families, have been arrested on the charge of taking numerous letters from the post-office there, addressed to different persons. The evidence is strong against them.

Cass on Clay.—General Cass, in his recent speech at Detroit, in reply to the attack made on him by the Richmond Enquirer, thus alludes to Mr. Clay:—

"I hold the name of Mr. Clay in the greatest reverence, and rank him with the wisest and purest patriots, whose services are written upon the history of our country, and whose memory is indelibly impressed upon the hearts of our countrymen. Such men as Mr. Clay may unite—they never conspire. In the stormy period of 1850 it was my pride to cooperate with him, and to add my feeble contribution to his gigantic efforts in behalf of the integrity and permanency of the constitution."

Whigs and Democrats of Massachusetts.—We don't crow over the Democrats in Massachusetts. We respect the feelings of the vanquished. They only earned one respect; our friends earned six.—Taking the fight as between the old parties, Whigs and Democrats, and leaving out of the question the Know-Nothings, a new party altogether, the Whigs have done remarkably well, beating the Democrats six to one. We trust that the Whig members of the Legislature will enter into no coalition, but stand up for their integrity and stern alliances. Especially we hope they will keep out of the way of that one Democrat. Let him stand alone.—Providence Journal.

It is stated that David Tallmadge, of Lancaster, Ohio, formerly a great stage contractor, has failed for $200,000.

Suspended Western Banks.—For the present we hear of no more suspensions of Western banks; but if there are any more of the same ilk as those already reported, it should not be deemed anything of a calamity if they too should shut up shop, that the public may then have done with them.—For the sake of keeping our readers posted, we extract the following list of suspended Western banks, from Thompson's Reporter of Nov. 18.

The Union Bank, Chicago, Ill.; the Bank of Napierville, Napierville, Ill.; the city Bank, of Chicago, Ill.; the Merchants and Mechanics' Bank of Chicago, Ill.; and the Farmers' Bank of Chicago, Ill., are said to have failed; also the Mechanics and Traders' Bank of the State Bank of Ohio, Cincinnati, Ohio; the Sandusky City Bank, Ohio; the Farmers' Joint Stock Banking Company, Toronto, Canada; the Bank of Cleveland, Ohio; the Exchange Bank, Buffalo, N. Y.; the Canal Bank, Cleveland, Ohio; the City Bank of Columbus, O.

Seven more Indiana Banks are under protest, viz:—

Wayne Bank, Logansport; State Stock Bank of Indiana, Peru; Upper Walnut Bank, Wabash; Perry County Bank, Canaan; Steuben County Bank, Angola; Traders' Bank, Terre Haute; Great Western Bank, Terre Haute.

Presence of Mind.—On Monday afternoon, while the school was in session in the Ringgold School House, Philadelphia, a boy, about 10 years of age, who had been sent into a classroom on the first floor, whispered to the lady teachers that the room was full of smoke. She went there, and finding the report correct, informed the principal, Mr. Roberts, who, after taking the precaution of turning the door-ways to prevent a rush, dismissed the whole seven hundred children with at the slightest accident.—The fire was extinguished without serious damage. The heat of the furnace had set fire to the adjoining work-shop. The discovery was most fortunate, as the classrooms are adjacent to the stair-ways, and if the flames had obtained much headway, would have cut off escape from the upper floors.

Church Burnt.—The Methodist Episcopal church at Hyattsville, Montgomery county, Md., was burned to the ground on Saturday night last, it having caught fire from the stove pipe during the services in the evening, but was not discovered until about 2 o'clock in the morning, when it was enveloped in flames, and was totally destroyed. It was not insured.

Infamous.—On Thursday last, as a passenger train on the Ogdenburg, New York, railroad was approaching the bridge across Trout Brook, between Madrid and Potsdam, the engineer discovering a smoke rising from the bridge, stopped the train. On examination it was found that some villain had fired the bridge, which had burned until it was a mere shell. Had not the smoke been observed, a fearful loss of life would have ensued. It is a great pity that the perpetrators of these schemes of wholesale murder cannot be discovered and punished as the crime deserves.

William Smith O'Brien.—The Irish politician convict, who was transported for life to Australia, some eight or nine years ago, and lately pardoned by the Queen, on condition of never entering the United Kingdom, has reached Gibraltar, by the steamer Candia, in which he was a first class passenger. He was careworn, and looked sad when he disembarked, saying that he scarcely knew what countryman to call himself. It was supposed he would take up his residence in Italy.

Trading off a Wife.—Franklin Butterfield, of Great Falls, N. H., was arrested recently on a charge of having two wives.—He has been to California, and says he gained the impression that his "old wife" was dead, and married. Neither the justice, sheriff, or the "old wife" seemed inclined to believe the story, but Butterfield was set at liberty on his giving the "old wife" a bond for about $400 worth of real estate in Dexter, Me.

Baby Shot.—The people of Ohio have become quite excited upon the subject of baby shots. The matter has been carried to such an extent as to call forth the following remarks from the Cleveland Herald:—"The thing is getting to be disgusting, when the contents of the cradle and the baby are judged by the same standard, when the babies are shot of by the poison, like fat calves in the slaughter."

Deathbed Confession of Murder.—About six days ago a woman, aged about 50 years, died in the night-chamber of the water works in Lebanon county, Pa., who a short time before her death, it is said, confessed that many years since, she poisoned a man named Deitz, of North Annville township, with whom she lived as housekeeper, and also murdered three of her own children.

Rather Typewriting.—It is said in Boston that the political dishes of the whigs and democrats at the recent election in Massachusetts were entirely spoiled by the introduction of too much K. N.

Henry Walters, Esq., formerly cashier of the Harrisburg (Pa.) Bank, is dead.

Escape from the "Sisterhood" at Emmitsburg, Md.

We find the following statement in the Frederick Examiner:—
Miss Josephine Buckley, a novice, who had not completed her probation, escaped from the Sisterhood at Emmitsburg, about 8 o'clock on the morning of the 10th inst. She is the daughter of Joseph Buckley, Esq., of Norfolk, Va., a protestant, who took her under his protection through this city, on Wednesday last, on their way home. The circumstances of Miss Buckley's unlawful detention and escape therefrom, as detailed to several of our citizens by her father, were as follows:—Since becoming a novice, she has been doing duty at St. Joseph's Seminary, as a teacher of music, &c., for the last ten months. Some months since, however, she repented of her connection with the Sisterhood, expressed a desire to return to her home, and wrote to her father to that effect. That letter was torn up before her eyes, and she was compelled to write in a different strain, declaring her satisfaction and contentment with her situation.

This last mentioned letter deceived her father; while the deception was confirmed by having all his letters to his daughter returned unopened. Aware, at length, that she was a prisoner, Miss Buckley determined to escape, and on the morning above named, succeeded in effecting her liberty, by climbing through a sash over a door, and thence into the yard. Her movements were overheard by the watchman, whose vigilance she eluded by concealing herself behind a tree. As soon as the watchman turned away she fled,—alone, a stranger, in the night, and dressed in her novice's habit and black cap, this poor terrified girl escaped over the rough country, ten weary miles, to the village of Greengrove, where, on inquiring for the stage house, she was directed to Stevens' Hotel. She immediately made known the circumstances of her case to Mr. Charles Stevens, the landlord, and demanded his protection, which was promptly accorded, and in Miss Grimes, a relative of Mr. Stevens, she found a faithful and gentle confidant and friend. Her next step was to write to her father; who, upon receipt of her letter, came without a moment's delay to her rescue. Miss B. is about 18 years of age, a very accomplished and beautiful young lady, speaking several languages, and a superior musician.

There has been great excitement in Frederick for a week or two past, on account of bench warrants having been issued against certain individuals, for conspiring together for the purpose of ending negro slaves to abscond from their masters. The negroes were to be induced to run away, and to take a direction so as to be caught by the parties, who would either secure the reward, or take them off and sell them to Southern traders. John Shaw, Zachariah Shaw, and John Morgan, are the individuals arrested.

Miss Murray, a Maid of Honor to Queen Victoria, has been visiting Cleveland, Ohio. She is said to fill the post of intimate personal friend to Her Majesty. Miss Murray is a relative of the Duke of Athol, and of Lord Murray. She is a descendant of Gov. Danmore, of Virginia. Her mother occupied the same position in the household of Queen Charlotte as is now held by Lady Murray in the household of Victoria.

A Mosquito Republic.—It was stated several months ago that some American capitalists had purchased from the Mosquito king a sort of title to all his territorial possessions. According to the New York Herald, this company has now fitted out an expedition in New York city to establish a colony in Mosquito, with a republican government, the purchase covering twenty-five millions of acres, and the intention being to unite San Juan thereto. Colonel Kinny, of Texas, heads the expedition.

The Mexican blockading squadron at Acapulco has met with a sad disaster. On the 19th of August a furious storm prevailed in the vicinity and damaged the three unfortunate vessels so much that one of them, the schooner Santa Anna, foundered, with all hands, soldiers and crew, amounting to about seventy, on board. The only person who escaped was the cook. The occurrence took place off Loretta. The fate of one of the other two, the schooner Guerrero, is not known. The third, the corvette Santa Anna, sustained extensive injury.

Small Farming Railroad Passenger.—A girl by the name of Ellen White took the small box in Boston, a short time ago, and before her convalescence was completed started on board the cars for her home, in Thetford, Vt. During her brief journey of a few hours she communicated the bathos some disease to a dozen people who were on board the train in which she traveled, several of whom have since died.

Danger of Trusting your Wife.—The editor of the Green Bay (Wisconsin) Advocate is a democrat; his wife is a whig. Confiding his paper to her management, he recently went on an electioneering tour. The lady reversed the engine, changed the politics of the paper, and the editor arrived home just in time to prevent the removal of the name of his favorite candidate from the columns of the Advocate.

The pleasures of a high northern latitude may, to some extent, be gathered from the fact, that sleighing has been excellent at Quebec since the 1st of this month, with the usual prospect that it will last till next April.
